Daily positioning/ passive stretches re updated therapy programmes throughout the week.

Activities in red will be changed on a bi-weekly basis - linked to the topic of 'Going on a Picnic'- teachers could adapt/ differentiate the sessions they are planning when in school.

The sensory story would run for the full half term and the sessions in red would be extension activities linked to the story. Parents would receive via dojo on how to support their child and this would only be updated if parents respond. VI/ cognition activities would have the same objectives dependant on pupils levels but the context may change ie if focus for week 2 is strawberries -art and craft would be based around that as would fun with food and then VI target may be around looking / tracking /alternate gaze between 2 red objects- cognition may be to pick up and post red items or find the same red item for some.
